

What's involved in being in a...

Missional Group

WHO: You and a few of your friends (5-10 people is a great size). If you already have a group, go through these discussions with them. If you don't have a group, think about people you connect with in your everyday life, people from work or your neighborhood or those whose kids are in some of the activities that your kids are involved in, and other people you know from FAITH. We'd love for you to make your own groups. If you want help, we can help you.

WHAT: We'll be working through an 8 session discussion guide called the TK Primer. It is written by Hugh Halter who is also the author of SACRILEGE, the book we are reading together during this series on the missional life. It will help us think practically about how to connect more deeply with the needs of our community and each other.

The primer has activities for each day of the week that take about 20 minutes to complete—and then you'll meet with your group to discuss some of the ideas you've been reflecting on.

WHERE: Gather anyplace comfortable and convenient for you. What's important is that you meet. We think homes are great, or it could be at a coffee shop or café that welcomes groups!

We'll start the groups together at our Ash
WHEN: Wednesday Services on February 22 @ 12 noon and 7pm. They will run for 8 weeks (that is until mid April) or until your group finishes. You and your group will pick a time that works for everyone to meet each week.

Learning to live out our faith in new ways is challenging.
WHY: It takes practice and encouragement from other people who are trying to learn these missional ways as well. That is why we are encouraging you to step into these groups. Besides, things are usually more fun together!

HOW: Fill out a registration card for you /your group letting us know you want to participate by WED, FEBRUARY 15th. We'll order your group's TK Primers and you can pick them up/pay for them ($15) on Ash Wednesday (Feb 22) at the kick off. Cards can be turned into the table in the Lobby, the church office or Pastor Jane.

If you have other questions or need more info, please contact us

Pastor Jane Jebson
jane@faithgolden.org

Pastor Peter Morin
peter@faithgolden.org

What's involved in being in a...

Missional Group

WHO: You and a few of your friends (5-10 people is a great size). If you already have a group, go through these discussions with them. If you don't have a group, think about

people you connect with in your everyday life,

people from work

or your neighborhood or those whose kids

are in some of the activities that your kids are involved in, and other people you know from FAITH.

We'd love for you to make your own groups. If you want help, we can help you.

WHAT: We'll be working through an 8 session discussion guide called the TK Primer. It is written by Hugh Halter who is also the author of SACRILEGE, the book we are reading together during this series on the missional life. It will help us think practically about how to connect more deeply with the needs of our community and each other.

The primer has activities for each day of the week that take about 20 minutes to complete—and then you'll meet with your group to discuss some of the ideas you've been reflecting on.

WHERE: Gather anyplace comfortable and convenient for you. What's important is that you meet. We think homes are great, or it could be at a coffee shop or café that welcomes groups!

We'll start the groups together at our Ash
WHEN: Wednesday Services on February 22 @ 12 noon and 7pm. They will run for 8 weeks (that is until mid-April) or until your group finishes. You and your group will pick a time that works for everyone to meet each week.

WHY: Learning to live out our faith in new ways is challenging. It takes practice and encouragement from other people who are trying to learn these missional ways as well. That is why we are encouraging you to step into these groups. Besides, things are usually more fun together!

HOW: Fill out a registration card for you /your group letting us know you want to participate by WED, FEBRUARY 15th. We'll order your group's TK Primers and you can pick them up/pay for them ($15) on Ash Wednesday (Feb 22) at the kick off. Cards can be turned into the table in the Lobby, the church office or Pastor Jane.

If you have other questions or need more info, please contact us

Pastor Jane Jebson
jane@faithgolden.org

Pastor Peter Morin
peter@faithgolden.org